If the amount from line 6 is greater than the amount from Line 7, months of ineligibility must be calculated. Calculate the months of ineligibility as follows:

* If the amount from Line 6 is less than or equal to $1000, you are ineligible for 1 month
* If the amount from Line 6 is greater than $1000 but less than or equal to $2000, you are ineligible for 2 months

The ineligibility period increases by 1 month for each $1000 increase in the range. For example, if the amount from Line 6 is greater than $2000 but less than $3000, the ineligibility period is 3 months. If the amount from Line 6 is greater than $3000 but less than $4000, the ineligibility period is 4 months, etc.

Your period of ineligibility due to receipt of a lump sum payment may be shortened if:

a. A portion of your one-time lump sum income is used to replace or repair list or damaged property due to a fire, flood or natural disaster occurring during the ineligibility period, and/or

b. A portion of your one-time lump sum income is used to pay for medical expenses which were incurred by a family member for whom you are responsible and paid in a month during the ineligibility period.
