

CHICAGO MAYOR'S OFFICE FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

AND PEPSICO

INVITE YOU TO ATTEND:

A Leadership Roundtable

CHICAGO BUSINESSES BUILDING TOMORROW'S WORKFORCE: INCLUSION OF PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

Date: Monday, October 15, 2012
Breakfast/Networking: 7:30 – 8:00
Program: 8:00 – 10:00

Location: Pepsico Chicago
Address: 555 W. Monroe St.
Room: Sustainability Center
Ground Floor Level

In recognition of National Disability Employment Awareness Month, please join local business leaders to discuss strategies for diversifying your workplace through the hiring of people with disabilities. Leaders participating in this interactive roundtable will leave with a better understanding of:

- The latest trends and best practices for diversity and inclusion strategies
- Finding entry-level to executive candidates with disabilities
- What other local companies are doing
- Opportunities to connect with local hiring and internship programs
- Resources immediately available

Roundtable Moderators:

- Karen Tamley – Commissioner, Mayor's Office for People with Disabilities
- Scott Hoesman – CEO, inQUEST Consulting a global Diversity & Inclusion firm with deep expertise of disability as a workplace topic

We look forward to seeing you at the Roundtable.

Please RSVP and make reasonable accommodation requests to Judy Palencia by October 11 at judy.palencia@ex.cityofchicago.org or call 312-744-7410
