

Commitment to ACCT & MFP Process

- We, the undersigned do hereby commit to the Principles and Values of the ACCT process.
- By signature, our agency validates that it has read and agrees to abide by these Principles in support of individuals that Transition from SODCs. Furthermore, we agree to publicly support these both within our agency and in public statements.
- We will not do anything to inhibit, diminish, or undermine these Principles.
- We do understand that we may question, debate, and criticize the implementation of the Principles, without affecting our participation or commitment to the ACCT process.
- We acknowledge and support that these ACCT Principles are indicative of the Person-Centered Direction that the Governor's Office and the Division of Developmental Disabilities is committed to head.
- We agree to participate in meetings, training and data collection/reporting associated with Money Follows the Person (MFP).

Signed,
