

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING YOUR ELIGIBILITY FOR TRANSITIONAL ASSISTANCE

To:

Date of Notice: _____

You are eligible for Transitional Assistance for the reason marked below. You can only receive Transitional Assistance:

for as long as the condition that met the reason for receiving Transitional Assistance continues; or until the time limit for the condition is reached. At the end of this time, you can keep getting Transitional Assistance only if you meet one of the other reasons.

The reasons for receiving Transitional Assistance and the time limitations, if one is applicable, are given below. The reason that applies to you has been marked.

You have been found disabled by the Department and you have a Supplemental Security Income application or appeal pending through the Administrative Law Judge.
Time Limit - None.

You are required to take medicine regularly to control diabetes, high blood pressure, or seizures.
Time Limit - None.

You are needed at home to provide care for another person due to a medical condition.
Time Limit - None.

You are age 55 or older and have earned less than $2000 in the past year and earned less than $200 a month in 7 of these months.
Time Limit - None.

You are under the age 20 and go to high school or equivalent vocational or other training school full-time.
Time Limit - You can get Transitional Assistance until you graduate or reach the age of 20. If you are still attending school full-time and have not graduated by the age of 20, unless you are eligible for another reason, your case will be cancelled effective: _____

You are homeless due to a court-ordered evacuation, domestic violence, fire, or natural disaster that occurred in the last 6 months.
Time Limit - You can only get Transitional Assistance due to homelessness for 6 months. If you are still homeless at the end of the 6 month period, unless you are eligible for another reason, your case will be cancelled: _____

You have a temporary illness or incapacity.
Time Limit - Unless we decide before then that you are still ill or incapacitated, or unless you meet requirements for another reason, based on the medical proof you provided, your case will be closed effective: _____

If you think that you will still be ill or incapacitated after that date, you should send us proof from you doctor, as soon as possible. If you wait too late to send us this proof, there may be a break in your assistance.
