

Illinois Governor Pat Quinn

Governor's Office of New Americans and Hispanic Heritage Month Committee

Invite You to Participate in the:

1st Annual 2012 Hispanic Heritage Month Art & Literary Work Contest

"Many Backgrounds, Many Stories...One American Spirit"

The Office of Governor Quinn encourages all Illinois youth between K - 12 to participate in this 1st Annual 2012 Hispanic Heritage Month Art & Literary Work Contest. There is no entry fee and submissions are limited to one entry per person. Contest participation requires the creation of one original piece per person, inspired by the interpretation of the Hispanic Heritage Month theme "Many Backgrounds, Many Stories...One American Spirit" and as described in the guidelines below. There will be a total of four (4) $100-$200 cash prizes that will be awarded to winners based on their age range. Winners will also have their art or literary work displayed in the Illinois State Capitol Building throughout Hispanic Heritage Month.

Art Entry Guidelines:

The Hispanic Heritage Month Art contest is open to all Illinois students in grades K-12. Two winners will be selected: one elementary student (grades K-5) and one middle-school or high-school student (6-12).

In your artwork, depict how Hispanics/Latinos have contributed to the American spirit. You may use traditional, cultural or historical images in your piece.

- Medium can be mixed, watercolor, acrylic, oil, pen, pencil, chalk, or marker on any type of paper or canvas.
- Artwork must be two-dimensional and must not exceed 24" x 48"
- Student's original signature should be at the bottom right corner of the artwork or on the back of the art piece
- Judging is based on originality, creativity and interpretation of the Hispanic Heritage Month contest theme

Each art entry must include a title page with the following information:

- Student's Full Name, Student's Grade Level
- Title of Work, Medium
- Sentence about inspiration or description of work
- Sentence about the student's interest in art
- School or Organization Name and Address
- Student's Home Address, Telephone Number

Literary Work Guidelines:

The Hispanic Heritage Month Literary contest is open to all Illinois students in grades K-12. Two winners will be selected: one elementary student (grades K-5) and one middle-school or high-school student (6-12).

In your literary piece, describe how Hispanics/Latinos have contributed to the American spirit. You may use traditional, cultural or historical references in your work.

- Acceptable literary forms include essay, poem or short story only.
- Submissions must be typed; handwritten submissions will not be accepted.
- Piece must not exceed 500 words, and must contain page numbers at the bottom.
- Each essay must reflect the contestant's own research, writing and original thinking.
- Essay must be written in English but may include Spanish vocabulary.

Each essay must include a title page, not considered part of the 500 word text, with the following information:

- Author's Full Name, Author's Grade Level
- Title of Literary Piece
- Sentence about the student's interest in art
- School or Organization Name and Address
