Allegation

On January 20, 2017, the Office of the Inspector General received a reported allegation of physical abuse from Progressive Housing, Incorporated. It is alleged that XXXXX pinned individual XXXXX on the ground and punched him repeatedly.

Synopsis

On January 20, 2017, XXXXX witnessed XXXXX throw XXXXX to the ground and XXXXX and XXXXX saw XXXXX punching XXXXX. Video surveillance from Progressive Housing shows XXXXX and XXXXX go to the floor. The video does not capture both men on the floor and shows one person striking the other multiple times. The person striking the other person stands up and is identified as XXXXX. XXXXX examined XXXXX after the incident and found his cheeks were slightly swollen, and he had about a quarter size bruise on his mouth, which was bleeding.

Findings

Based on the facts in this case the following was concluded. The allegation of physical abuse is substantiated and the allegation of and mental abuse is unsubstantiated against XXXXX.

Recommendations

The Office of The Inspector General recommends the following:

Progressive Housing should address its failure to take photographs of XXXXX' injuries and complete a full body examination to document the full extent of his injuries as required by Rule 50, Section 50.30(f) on the day of the incident.
