Allegation

On March 5, 2017, the Office of the Inspector General received a reported allegation of physical abuse from St. Coletta's of Illinois, Inc. It is alleged that, on the morning of March 5, 2017, XXXXX restrained individual XXXXX after XXXXX became aggressive toward XXXXX. As XXXXX restrained XXXXX, they fell together with XXXXX hitting his head against a wall and then the floor, resulting in XXXXX sustaining multiple injuries to his face. Later that day, XXXXX was diagnosed with a fractured nose, facial bruising and a cut and swollen lip.

Synopsis

XXXXX reportedly ran toward and attacked XXXXX by jumping on her. XXXXX intervened and admitted tackling, grabbing, picking up and slamming XXXXX and causing XXXXX's head and face to strike against a nearby table and floor. XXXXX instructed XXXXX to better control XXXXX by flipping him over onto his abdomen. XXXXX did this and held XXXXX to the floor, using his body and forearm, across the back on XXXXX's neck. XXXXX wrestled with XXXXX for approximately 10 minutes, during which time XXXXX left XXXXX alone with XXXXX, while she used the bathroom. XXXXX sustained multiple head and facial injuries including a possible concussion, head, facial and body bruising and swelling and nasal fractures. This incident was also witnessed by at least one, or possibly two, other individuals, on the morning of March 5, 2017. XXXXX and XXXXX did not seek medical care and treatment for XXXXX, in a timely manner.

Findings

Based on the facts in this case the following was concluded: The allegation of physical abuse is substantiated against XXXXX. The allegations of neglect are substantiated against XXXXX and XXXXX.
