Allegation

On June 24, 2017, the Office of the Inspector General received a reported allegation of neglect from CTF Illinois. It was alleged that XXXXX eloped from the home after XXXXX failed to complete her entire shift, leaving XXXXX in the home alone, with seven individuals.

Synopsis

On June 24, 2017, XXXXX was scheduled to work from 12:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. However, she left at approximately 3:40 p.m., leaving XXXXX in the home alone with seven individuals. This was XXXXX first day working in this CILA. Although XXXXX denied being aware of the client to staff ratio, she admitted knowing that one of the individuals, later identified as XXXXX, required 1:1 supervision. At 3:45 pm, XXXXX arrived at the CILA to administer medications. XXXXX then left the home to pick up XXXXX, who was scheduled to begin his shift at 4:00 p.m. When they arrived at the CILA, they observed XXXXX outside the home wearing only a shirt and a diaper. According to the website, Wunderground, the temperature between 3:35 p.m. and 4:00 p.m. on June 24, 2017, was 74.3 degrees Fahrenheit with scattered clouds.

Findings

Based on the facts in this case, the following was concluded: the allegation of neglect against XXXXX is substantiated.
