Allegation

On September 6, 2017, the Office of the Inspector General received a reported allegation of abuse from CTF. It is alleged that on the evening of September 1, 2017, XXXXX made XXXXX stand in the corner of the living room for an undetermined length of time.

Synopsis

On September 1, 2017, at 4:00pm, when XXXXX began her shift, XXXXX informed her that XXXXX had chewed through an extension cord. XXXXX then began yelling at XXXXX, took her doll and locked it in the office and then made her stand in the corner for over an hour. XXXXX claimed that XXXXX’s Behavior Plan noted that she was to stand up when she displayed maladaptive behavior to prevent other behaviors from occurring. She later admitted that when she checked XXXXX’s 2017 Behavior Plan, she could find no such reactive procedure.

Findings

Based on the facts in this case, the following was concluded: The allegation of mental abuse is substantiated against XXXXX.

Recommendations

The Office of The Inspector General recommends the following: The agency address XXXXX and XXXXX’s failure to report the allegation of abuse in a timely manner, which is a violation of 20 ILCS 1305/1-17(k). Willful failure to comply with OIG’s reporting requirements is a Class A misdemeanor.
