Allegation

On October 20, 2017, the Office of the Inspector General received a reported allegation of abuse from CTF Illinois. It is alleged that on October 15, 2017, XXXXX called individual XXXXX a “[expletive deleted]” and “lying [expletive deleted]” and threatened her by saying, “Turn the [expletive deleted] up.” It was also alleged that DSP Reeder threatened to report that XXXXX was “[expletive deleted] everyone.”

Synopsis

On October 15, 2017, at approximately 11:15 am, XXXXX and XXXXX began looking for the keys to the CILA van, because one of the individuals began exhibiting a behavior and needed to be transported to the hospital. XXXXX informed staff that XXXXX told her to hide the keys in her purse because she wanted to preserve the gas. When XXXXX showed up for her shift, she stormed in and went straight to XXXXX’s room where she towered over XXXXX, who was sitting on her bed. XXXXX said to XXXXX, “I told you about this.” XXXXX recorded a conversation between herself and XXXXX saying, “I’m not going to keep defending you”. “Am I lying?” “The BS you did last time just cleared up.” “First of all, when I left, what did I say to you? Yet, you still ...” “Why would you sit there and lie on me and say that I said put the van key in your purse?” “You have one more time to lie on me.” “I told you if you did this again what would happen.” XXXXX was dominating the conversation. On the following day when XXXXX attempted to speak to XXXXX, XXXXX heard say to XXXXX, “I’m not fucking with you. Don’t talk to me.” XXXXX would not give OIG the recording from her phone but she did let OIG listen to the recording.

Findings

Based on the facts in this case the following was concluded: The allegation of mental abuse is substantiated against XXXXX.
