Allegation

On September 04, 2017, the Office of the Inspector General received a reported allegation of physical abuse from Royal Living Center. It is alleged that XXXXX threw a dinner plate at XXXXXXXX on an unknown date and time.

Synopsis

XXXXX denied throwing a plate and striking XXXXXXXX as alleged. However, XXXXXXXXXXXX said the plate did not hit her but XXXXX cussed her as she threw the plate in her direction which scared her and made her feel bad. XXXXXXXXXXXX's statement was supported in full by eyewitnesses XXXXX, and XXXXX.

Findings

Based on the facts in this case, the following was concluded: The allegation of physical abuse is unsubstantiated and the allegation of mental abuse is substantiated against XXXXX.

Recommendations

The Office of the Inspector General recommends the agency addresses XXXXX, and XXXXX failure to report the allegation within the required four-hour timeframe. A willful failure to comply with the OIG reporting requirement is a violation of 20ILCS 1305/1-17(k), a Class A misdemeanor.
