Allegation

On September 18, 2017, the Office of the Inspector General received a reported allegation of physical abuse from FAYCO Enterprises. It is alleged two unknown staff members physically abused an unknown severely handicapped male individual (later identified as XXXXXXXX) on the evening of September 17, 2017. Allegedly, a male staff approached the individual, who was sitting in a chair on the outside patio, and yelled at him with words to the effect of “You’re going to jail” and then hit the individual, knocking him to the ground. This male staff then kicked the individual. Reportedly, another staff member, appearing female, came out of the home and jumped on the individual and started banging him up and down on the ground.

Synopsis

During the investigation, it was determined the only staff member on duty during the incident was XXXXX. XXXXXXXX and XXXXXXXX were the ones involved in an altercation and both denied being physically abused by XXXXX. Both XXXXXXXX and XXXXXXXX admitted hitting each other and XXXXXXXX knocked XXXXXXXX to the ground. XXXXX attempted to get in between them and verbally redirected them during the altercation, but to no avail, so he called for the local police. Once XXXXXXXX was on the ground, XXXXXXXX was on top of him. XXXXXXXX reported XXXXX told him to hold him down until the police arrived. During this time, XXXXXXXX bit XXXXXXXX, and XXXXXXXX responded to the bite by hitting XXXXXXXX again, while holding him down on the ground. XXXXX admitted to the Greenville Police Department that he asked XXXXXXXX to hold XXXXXXXX on the ground until police could arrive, and XXXXX admitted to OIG that he may have told XXXXXXXX one time in the heat of the moment to hold XXXXXXXX on the ground until the police arrived.

Findings

Based on the facts in this case, the following was concluded: The allegation of physical abuse is substantiated against XXXXX.
