Allegation

On June 28, 2018, the Office of the Inspector General received a reported allegation of neglect from Clearbrook. It is alleged that XXXXX failed to supervise to XXXXX and XXXXX when he allowed XXXXX to accompany XXXXX inside a building to attend a community outing alone on June 28, 2017.

Synopsis

On June 28, 2017, XXXXX was assigned to escort XXXXX to the Metropolis Center for a community workshop program. He arrived at the Metropolis Center one hour and thirty minutes before XXXXX's scheduled arrival time. He reported not being able to leave the other individuals in the van unattended while he escorted XXXXX inside the building. So, he allowed individual XXXXX to escort XXXXX inside the building. Neither has independent community time. XXXXX returned to the van and XXXXX drove off. XXXXX was left at the Metropolis Center unsupervised for an undetermined period. XXXXX is not independent in the home or community. He has memory difficulties and tendencies to intrude on others' personal space which creates a risk to himself and others, so he will need supervision from staff or family across environments. XXXXX has difficulty with his vision and cannot access the community alone.

Findings

Based on the facts in this case the following was concluded. The allegation of neglect against XXXXX is substantiated.
