Allegation

On September 27, 2017, the Office of the Inspector General received a reported allegation of neglect from Envision Unlimited. It is alleged that XXXXX eloped while being supervised 1:1 by XXXXX on September 27, 2017, between 4:00 and 6:30 a.m.

Synopsis

On September 27, 2017, XXXXX was assigned overnight to supervise XXXXX 1:1. XXXXX was the second staff person working that shift at the CILA. XXXXX arrived at the CILA that morning and observed the front door opened. He witnessed both XXXXX and XXXXX sleeping. He discovered that XXXXX eloped. He did not notify the staff on duty or the agency and continued to perform his job duties. XXXXX then observed that XXXXX eloped. XXXXX was located by police and was taken to a local hospital sometime that morning. It was not determined the exact time he eloped from the home. XXXXX and XXXXX failed to supervise XXXXX which resulted in his elopement. XXXXX was first to notice that XXXXX had eloped, but failed to act or notify anyone which caused a delay in search efforts, which further placed him at risk.

Findings

Based on the facts in this case the following was concluded. The allegation of neglect is substantiated against XXXXX, XXXXX and XXXXX.

Recommendations

The Office of The Inspector General recommends Envision Unlimited address the following:

The agency develops a policy and procedure that specifically assigns a staff to an individual’s enhanced supervisor. The agency should consider installing an alarm system on the doors at the Kilpatrick CILA due to XXXXX’s history of elopement. The agency should address XXXXX failure to report the allegation of neglect in a timely manner, which is a violation of 20 ILCS 1305/1-7(k). Willful failure to comply with OIG’s reporting requirements is a Class A misdemeanor.
