

Education Committee Observation Form

LOOK AND LISTEN - TAKE YOUR TIME!

Environment

- Is it pleasant and interesting without being over stimulating? Yes No
- Are there different areas for different activities? Yes No
- Are there opportunities for children to play in groups of 3 children or less? Yes No
- How is the outdoor area? Is there enough equipment for the children? Yes No
- Is the indoor and outdoor environment clean, organized and safe for children? Yes No

Comments:

Interaction between teachers and children

- Do teachers seem happy to work with the children? Yes No
- Do teachers get down to the children's level? Yes No

How are children greeted when they arrive?

- Teachers greet them at the door or by their name, "Good Morning"?
- They are NOT greeted in any particular way.

What happens when too many children need the teacher's attention?

- The teacher recognizes that everyone wants his attention but reminds them, or sets a procedure to, how they will get it.
- The teacher gives his attention to some children but ignore the rest.
- The teacher ignores all the children.

Are teachers loving and caring when children cry? Yes No

How does the teacher react when two children fight?

- Initially:
- The teacher remains calm and in control of the situation.
 - The teacher responds with aggression without knowing all the details.
- Second:
- The teacher unjustly punishes the children.
 - The teacher guides the children so that they can resolve the problem by themselves and assists only when asked or needed.
 - The teacher resolves the problem without involving the children.

Comments:

Education Committee Observation Form

Activities

Is there a balance between active play and quiet play? Yes No

Is there a variety and quantity of toys that children enjoy? Yes No

Are the activities appropriate for the children's ages (not too easy, not too difficult)? Yes No

Comments:

In General

Can you visit the center when you want, without calling first? Yes No

Do teachers keep you informed about center activities and/or your child's development? Yes No

Are you in agreement with the disciplinary practices? Yes No

Comments: